25 STUDIES 25 ESTUDIOS

Allegro

No. 1

The musical score for Study No. 1 consists of ten staves. The first staff is the treble clef, and the second is the bass clef. The piece is marked 'Allegro' and begins with a dynamic of 'mf'. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and rests. There are several dynamic markings throughout, including 'f' and 'p'. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

To facilitate the study of the following arpeggios and the execution of the left hand, the notes on each staff are placed over each bar. The notes which are to be played Arpeggio, as written in the staff below, the pupil will see at a glance the correct fingering. The notes which are to be played with the thumb, the other fingers, or the other hand, are indicated by lines from one hand to the other, or by a small circle around the note. The notes which are to be played with the thumb, the other fingers, or the other hand, are indicated by lines from one hand to the other, or by a small circle around the note.

Para facilitar el estudio de los arpeggios y la acción de la mano izquierda, he escrito en cada barra un pentagrama adicional encima de los otros, en el que debe tocarse como arpeggio, como se describe en el pentagrama de abajo. El alumno verá, de un vistazo, el acorde que corresponde al arpeggio y en qué notas deben tocarse los dedos.

Las líneas curvadas que van de un acorde al otro, sirven para indicar que el dedo en esas notas no cambian y no se deben mover.
